Heritage

Experience an authentic cultural heritage

Not only are Vittel and Contrexéville spa towns but they are also major cultural venues thanks to European aristocrats in the 19th and 20th centuries:

- Musée du Patrimoine et du Thermalisme: a museum telling the story of Vittel.
- Mansions and villas in Vittel built in the resort style of the 1930s.
- Contrexéville's Baroque casino and theatre.
- Contrexéville's Russian Orthodox chapel built in honour of Grand Duchess Vladimir of Russia.
- St. Louis' Chapel in Vittel with its unique statue of the Virgin Mary holding a glass of water and its stained-glass windows featuring members of the Bouloumié family, founders of the Vittel's spa.

Feel revitalised with country walks

You've taken care of your well-being and cultural knowledge. Now take advantage of all the fresh air and natural environment. Vittel and Contrexéville offer plenty of walks and cycle tracks, as well as discovery trails:

- More than 700 hectares of parks around the spa complexes, filled with lush greenery and flowers.
- "Plaine de Jardins" in Vittel: enjoy a walk that appeals to the senses and learn a natural approach to gardening.
- The Gardens' Trail, including the Russian garden in Contrexéville and the Biodiversity garden in Vittel.
- More than 100 km of footpaths around lakes, in Vittel's park and through nearby villages.
